Unanswered questions... "Yes," I replied. But he doesn't play poker anymore. - That's for sure? - If I played, I would know. "Okay, thanks for taking the time. I nodded and returned to my work. After this conversation, I felt as if I had received a gift. Now I knew who this man was, how he had lost his place. I knew what he did. And he knew that I knew. There was no more need to talk about it. I did him a favor by letting him live, knowing that he would live. He had to live.
