He was beatified in the United States on 2 February 2000 with the pope giving his approval. Life Federico Bocca was born in Saint-Martin on the Corsica in the northern corner of France on 4 October 1918 and was baptized the following day. He was the son of Giuseppe Bocca and Luisa Carnaci. He was married to Celeste Pomele and had five children. Bocca had an ambition to be a priest and was inspired to do so by his mother who loved to see the men in her parish wearing their priestly collars. In 1937 Bocca's parents died at the same time and he began his training for the priesthood in Turin. Bocca was sent to a seminary in Milan in 1940 where he was trained to become a priest. He returned to Italy in January 1941 and then studied for further theological studies for another five years in order to have the necessary degree to be accepted for priesthood. On 17 November 1942 he was ordained to the priesthood in the basilica of San Piet
