We produce reliable pagers and secure software for emergency alerts. Find manuals and certificates in our download section. Click here for information. Our other products include Praktika, a real-time intrusion detection system that automatically prevents unauthorized access to your establishment. We also have a quality control system - "Aquarius Quality", which ensures compliance with all existing standards. We can help you create and implement a security system, as well as obtaining a license. Get a free sample of our security system!
