Free Adult Movies on Wattpad. I had every reason to walk away. When I look back now it seems so easy, to just walk away. I watched him get up, my head in my hands as I waited for him to leave. I wanted him to go, so I could go, so I could stop feeling hurt. I shouldn't have opened my heart to someone like him. It was stupid, it was so stupid. It was all too much, too much. I said nothing. I just watched him get dressed, get into his car and drive away. I knew it was the wrong thing to do. I knew it would only make things worse, but I couldn't stop myself. I felt empty, like I'd been emptied out. I wanted to say something. I wanted to tell him what I thought. I wanted to ask him what it was he wanted. But I said nothing. I'd heard him on the phone, calling his mum, it seemed. It started the moment I opened the door. When he began that way, it started. When he was silent. When it was obvious. I'd been hurt enough. I didn't need this. I couldn't go through the shit again, I just couldn't. I had to be strong. I couldn't be weak. I had a job to do. I needed to be strong for Chris, and for my boys. I needed to be the man I promised to be. I couldn't face any more hurt. So I stood there, and I closed the door. But I couldn't stop the tears. Why couldn't I stop the tears? I just couldn't stop the tears. I couldn't stop him. I was so stupid. I was so stupid. I was so stupid. That was why I couldn't leave. That was why I was there. And every time he'd been there before. Every time he'd been there before. I tried to tell myself it would be better. I
