What's new in Starry Moon Island Tank Advance MP08:

E.P. by Niels Heie Sohn released on May 16, 2018 12th Comes... Rogues Gallery: Top 100 Number One Albums of 2017 17 Ciara Harris January 23, 2018 2017 was one hell of a year for music! In this year's Rogues Gallery, out of over 300 albums, we chose just 100 spots to round out the year. This year also saw the release of over 20 million albums, which points to how tailed their popularity has become. As the following lists shows, metal, rock and hip-hop all set bar after bar with their music this year. Nightwish brought us back to adventure, something we missed since Enemy's was released. While epic, the album still has that pop touch that makes this band special. It also made us realize I really need to revisit their other albums to see where they went right after Imaginaerum. Jimmy Graham is back with yet another great album and you can expect this to be a top selling album in the metal scene. The top 100 list still showcases that this genre still has something to offer, even though Bleed The Sky was the first true heavy album of 2017. Bleed The Sky all the way! On the other end, all we have is Cage The Elephant with the perfect song and album for this time of year. The album is more about the message it delivers and this is the perfect song to go with that. It is the perfect couples track, mostly because May represents the beginning of spring and the start of love. In between those two is a whole genre of music this year, hip-hop, and the album stands as one of the best of 2017. Kendrick Lamar has done it again and this latest offering has been easy to shine in comparison to last year. After that, you can really listen to music, whether it's on the radio, on Spotify or even on your favorite streaming service, and chances are good you'll find something to enjoy. Here is our Top 100 album list, including good tunes on a variety of genres that are worth your time. 1. Niels Heie Sohn, Story, metal 2. Clean Bandit feat. Demi Lovato, Really Don't Care, pop 3. Madeon, Scene De//Sade, electronica 4. Julia Michaels, Woman, pop 5
