“FIFA '22 will take your breath away,” said Jacob Buckley, senior producer on the PlayStation and Xbox editions. “We bring the player movement to life with a special blend of inspiration and innovation through the integration of the top-of-the-line technology that will enable us to create better gameplay than ever before.” The game also introduces the highly-anticipated Pro Player game-modes, including a brand new and authentic looking game mode called Master League. In addition, the game features the highly anticipated Club Level, designed to deliver a new, action-packed gameplay experience. The game introduces Fan Endorsed Teams, which enable fans to become part of the game by officially selecting their favorite players to appear in the game. Additionally, MyPLAYER will feature new Player Traits, which will allow fans to create their own unique player in game, and customise their appearance with parts from the Store. FIFA '22 for PlayStation 4 and Xbox One will be available for pre-order beginning March 8, 2016, while the game will launch for PlayStation 3 and Xbox 360 on September 29, 2016, with Xbox One and PC versions planned for release later in the year. Key Features

“Be The King” Game-Mode: The FIFA '22 Pro Clubs game-mode will allow players to compete in a Top 16 season, essentially the final year of their career. In the game-mode, players can represent their favourite team and live out their dreams of lifting the title as the best player on the planet. The game-mode also includes Fan Endorsed Teams, which will allow fans to create their own unique Player, create a unique FUT Club, and experience the thrill of official club team management. Club Level Game-Mode: The club level game mode allows you to build a team from scratch and compete in a club-style match. The game-mode is represented by a stadium, and features separate areas to access the training ground, youth academy, and first team. Referee and Goalkeeper AI Development: The FIFA '22 game-mode will feature an update to the game's standard set of rules to improve AI refereeing, communication, and movement, and give them a wider berth when being pressured by players. Goalkeepers will have an improved ability to save shots, and also know how to react to shots by readying themselves for saves.
