Shajra e Attaria is a story about the sun of knowledge (Shajra) and the meat of terrorism (Attaria) which are two opposite aspects of the knowledge of the existence of Allah and that can create a havoc for the people at the time of the declaration of war of the powers, despite observing all the precautions. Ya Ilahi Reham Farma Mustafa Ke Waste Adl-al-Fakr have written a booklet dedicated to Ghulam Ali, or al-Fakhr al-Ayubi, in 1956, to commemorate his visit to Iran to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the constitution, and to mark the 50th anniversary of the establishment of the state of Pakistan. This book is written in praise of his great Sayyidina Muhammad al-Kabeer, may God praise and bless him. Adl-al-Fakr have written to Ghulam Ali, sayyidina Muhammad al-Kabeer, Mu'azzin-e-Jannat, Sayyidina Ali Qutb-e-Sayyidina Muhammad - al-Qaari, and Sayyidina Muhammad al-Qaari. In one corner of his room sits Sayyidina Ghulam Ali, having just dined upon a dish of eggplant, pickled cucumber, and pomegranate juice. As his visitors enter he gestures for them to be seated, and he returns to his meal, while a servant stands by his side. His withered legs are visible through the lacings of his white muslin trousers, and he is sporting a new long grey beard. He has been reduced to a feeble old man. He is no longer the unique person he once was. Indeed, he is no longer the person he was in the days when he sought the attention of the British. He speaks of the decade that has passed since he made his famous tour of countries to advocate a more just system. Ghulam Ali's recollections are interspersed with excerpts from his booklet, containing the Hadith of Ghadir. Ghulam Ali has a frail voice, but the voice is stronger than his frail body. For he still has the power and strength to move us - to evoke the eternal spark of that divine spark that once inspired the hearts of his disciples, the likes of which will not die even though Ghulam Ali's body may be dead. Towards the end of the booklet Sayyidina Ghulam Ali says: One of my prayers is that God grant me this life until the Day of Resurrection, and that my teachings, after my death, continue to live on. Rizviyya is the invocation of Allah's blessings ("Allah rahim newham") from one who has recently been blessed with a vision or a revelation from Allah Almighty. It is the formula intended to express thankfulness and gratitude to Allah for all the many gifts given. In this case, the blessed person then asks Allah for the blessings of an Islamic government and revolution in Pakistan, a country whose rise to power has been frequently hindered by Western forces and their Pakistan based lobby. Rizviyya is used in several forms, for example in Persian, Chinese, and Arabic. »Shajra Rizvia y Oh Allah Raza haalaatu Chale budhi ki sakte qamar Hai.« In Urdu it is a part of the Islamic prayer, so it should be said after the Istakhara. So for saying this particular rizvia after each rizwa (invocation) in the prayer. if we say it from farraheen books or daawatey books it is haraam. Then we shouldn't say Rizvia it means humiliation that can be lead to land and soul.
