The up flash tool or runtime trace mode (RTTM) allows you to flash Stock firmware. This enables you to install new firmware on the device if Stock firmware is corrupted or damaged. Once you flash, the device boots into Stock firmware only and not into Recovery. Once installed, you can use the RTTM to help diagnose OS problems, modify the recovery partition, re-enable the bootloader, etc. The RTTM allows a secondary, spare memory partition. In some cases, the RTTM may not work.
